

Crossroads and Outside the Box present
THE ORIGIN AND THE FUTURE OF HUMAN RIGHTS

REASONS FOR OUR HOPE

Reflections on Pope Benedict XVI's
Speech to the UN

Friday
October 17th 2008
5:30pm

George Washington University
Elliott School of International Affairs
1957 E Street, NW, Room 113
Washington, D.C.
Metro: Blue and Orange Lines
Foggy Bottom/GWU

Opening Remarks:

Archbishop
Celestino MIGLIORE
Permanent Observer of the Holy See to the UN

Speakers:

Paolo CAROZZA
*Chairman of the Inter-
American Commission on Human Rights OAS and
Associate Professor of Law at Notre Dame*

Michael HOROWITZ
Director of Hudson Institute's Project for Civil Justice Reform and Project for International Religious Liberty

Moderated by:

William E. DeMars
*Chairman of the Department of Government
Wofford College*

Sponsored by

www.crossroadsdc.org